Dear Supervisors:

STATE LEGISLATIVE AGENDA FOR THE FIRST YEAR OF THE 2005-06 SESSION (ALL AFFECTED DISTRICTS) (3 VOTES)

This letter recommends policies and proposals for the first year of the 2005-06 State Legislative Session. This package, together with other positions adopted by your Board, will guide our State advocacy efforts. They have been developed in coordination with County Departments, the Legislative Strategist, and our Sacramento advocates.

THEREFORE, IT IS RECOMMENDED THAT YOUR BOARD:

1. Approve the updated policies and proposals contained in this letter and attachments, which seek to minimize the adverse impact of State actions on the County, achieve greater flexibility over the use of State funds, secure State assistance whenever possible, especially from non-General Fund sources, and promote the growth of the State and local economy.
2. Instruct the Chief Administrative Officer, affected departments, the Legislative Strategist, and our Sacramento advocates to work with the County delegation, other counties and local governments, and interest groups to pursue these policies and proposals.

INTRODUCTION

For the fourth consecutive year the State is facing a major budget deficit in the next budget year that the Legislative Analyst's Office (LAO) estimates will be $6.7 billion. While revenue collections for the current and previous years are likely to be $2.4 billion above estimates, expenditures are up as well and most of the net gain is arguably obligated to K-12 education because of Proposition 98. According to the LAO, unless real, ongoing actions are taken to reduce the deficit, it will increase to almost $10 billion in FY 2006-07.

While some $3.5 billion of the $15 billion deficit bond authority remains unused, the LAO recommends that they not be sold in FY 2005-06 so that "real and ongoing solutions to close the budget gap..." will be adopted. With local government discretionary revenues essentially off-limits as a result of Proposition 1A's passage, State policy makers are likely to focus on State-funded programs and services, especially since the Governor and Republican Legislative leaders have promised not to raise taxes. Counties, which are heavily dependent on State funding for their budgets, especially for health and social service programs, have reason to be concerned. Some 53 percent of the County's funding comes from either State funding or Federal funding that is often contingent on State matching funds. Clearly, the County continues to have a great deal at stake in State budget deliberations.

IMPACT OF RECENT STATE BUDGET ACTIONS

Over the past four years Los Angeles County, like all counties, has been called upon to make major contributions toward State budget solutions. While direct cuts to programs have been limited, and services to the public have been minimally affected, this has been accomplished in many cases by the County using one-time reserves and administrative savings to absorb a greater share of costs for these programs. The cumulative loss to the County over the four years starting with the FY 2001-02 State Budget is well over $1 billion, including almost $160 million this year. In addition, since the first ERAF shift of property taxes in FY 1992-93, Los Angeles County has contributed over $11 billion to reduce the State's cost of funding public schools. This year the County is shifting over $720 million in property taxes to schools while receiving a partial replacement of $541 million of earmarked sales tax revenue from Proposition 172.

A brief review of the impact of prior State budget actions indicates the reasons why it is likely that additional State imposed cuts will result in reductions in personnel and public services.

Deferral of State-Mandated Payments

Beginning in FY 2002-03, the State stopped reimbursing local governments for most State-mandated services, including amounts owed from prior years. Those payments have been deferred until FY 2006-07, at which time the State committed to begin paying the accumulated debt over five years. Los Angeles County's share of this interest-free loan will reach approximately $272 million at the end of the current budget year. In the interval, the County has been using discretionary revenue to maintain these State-mandated services.

In addition, because of the delay in triggering the VLF increase last year, counties were forced to go without $1.2 billion in VLF revenues in FY 2003-04. While the State is obligated by law to repay this foregone revenue in August 2006, for the time being, the County has lost the use of almost $205 million in discretionary revenue, bringing its total on-going "loan" to the State to $477 million.

No Cost of Doing Business Adjustments

Since June 2001, the State has not granted counties cost of doing business adjustments for the cost of delivering most State/Federal human services programs. As a result, increased costs for salaries, health benefits, workers compensation, leases, and utilities have been shifted to counties. Though not technically a budget cut, this action has saved the State approximately $1.7 billion over four years and has shifted an estimated $400 million to $500 million in largely unavoidable costs to the County.

Direct Program Reductions

FY 2002-03 $ 91 million
FY 2003-04 $ 66 million
FY 2004-05 $ 5 million

As is evident from these numbers, State policy makers have sought to preserve core services and programs when making expenditure reductions in prior year budgets. With the exception of library services and some small social services programs such as Children's System of Care, few of the State's program-related budget reductions have had a significant impact on service levels. But that may not be the case this year since most of the non-program budget solutions have already been adopted.

OVERALL LEGISLATIVE PRIORITIES

As the local administrative arm of State government, counties are likely to be a target of State budget reductions. However, it is important to note that the capacity of counties generally, including Los Angeles County, to absorb major reductions in State programs is extremely limited because so much of counties' discretionary revenue is already committed to backfilling the cost of previous State budget solutions such as unpaid State mandates, the VLF gap loan, and un-reimbursed administrative cost increases.

Stabilizing Funding for the County's Health Care System

Under State law, counties are the provider of last resort for health care. With more than 2 million residents without health insurance, including an estimated 276,000 children, the County health system is a primary source of health care for the uninsured as well as for many Medi-Cal and Healthy Families beneficiaries. In addition, the health system is responsible for protecting all residents through the delivery of public health services such as communicable disease control and food inspections. The County's four acute care hospitals are the backbone of the region's emergency and trauma care system.

In January 2002, the County projected a shortfall of over $700 million in its health care system by FY 2005-06, an estimate that has been confirmed by the State Auditor. The shortfall, a result of steep increases in health care costs and declining or expiring Medicaid revenues, will occur despite the County's best efforts to streamline operations and increase the use of cost-effective outpatient care, as well as County voters' willingness to tax themselves to preserve the health system.

In June 2002, the Board of Supervisors adopted a plan to reform the County health care system to achieve $357.5 million in cost reductions. In November 2002, the voters overwhelmingly approved a property tax increase which provides about $175 million annually to improve trauma care and bioterrorism preparedness. In addition, County, State and Federal governments have worked collaboratively to provide $250 million in one-time assistance. While these actions have helped to narrow the budget gap, an underlying structural imbalance remains between the increasing cost of health care and declining Federal revenue.

In January 2004, the Schwarzenegger Administration announced plans to redesign the $30 billion Medi-Cal program which provides health care to more than six million low-income, medically needy Californians. In addition to proposing to expand the use of managed care, the Administration seeks to fundamentally change the basis upon which safety-net hospitals like the County's are reimbursed for providing care to low-income and uninsured Californians. The County has been working with the State Department of Health Services to ensure that these changes help to stabilize financing for the County's health care system. However, the Administration has yet to release the details of its proposal. Consequently, the County and other safety net providers continue to be concerned about whether the proposed approach will provide financial stability for safety net hospitals, or increase California's inadequate share of Federal Medicaid payments.

The new hospital financing system would be included in a new five-year federal waiver that the Administration is requesting from the Federal Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS). While the financing system is contingent upon CMS approval, numerous statutory changes must be adopted by the Legislature before it can be implemented. Prior to approving these statutory changes, the County requests that the Legislature hold comprehensive hearings to assure the future of safety net hospitals.

Continued Funding For Juvenile Probation

Last year the Administration proposed in its January budget to save $134 million by eliminating Federal TANF funding for juvenile probation services provided by counties. The County would have lost $55 million in the budget year and $83 million annually. A cut of that magnitude would have required the closure of 18 County probation camps, resulting in over 1,000 annual commitments to the California Youth Authority and 1,000 additional group home placements. Similar consequences were projected for other counties that operate camps, resulting in increased costs to the State that would have exceeded the projected savings. Eventually, the Legislature and the Administration agreed to restore funding for juvenile probation with State funds rather than TANF monies. It is critically important that such funding be continued in the FY 2005-06 budget or the County will again be forced to consider closures, as well as the elimination of key support services such as Pre-trial Services, the Work Crew Program, the Intensive Gang Program, DISARM, the Operation Read Program, and the Community Camp Transition Program.

Preserving and Improving Child Support Services

For historic reasons that reflect spending patterns when the child support program was restructured in 1999, the method of allocating State and Federal funds has resulted in huge disparities in funding, with the highest county receiving five times as much per case as the lowest county. Not surprisingly, counties with the lowest per case allocation tend to perform below the statewide average on the Federal government's five performance measures. And to make matters worse, five of the six counties with the largest child support caseloads – among them Los Angeles – receive significantly less than the statewide average per case allocation. The current allocation system does not adequately reflect differences between counties in their caseload or underlying demand for services. Unless future funding is allocated to those counties where it can have the greatest impact in improving performance, California will continue to forfeit millions of dollars in Federal incentive funds and the State will not maximize the benefit from the reduction in welfare grants that would result from increasing child support collections.

In the current State budget environment, it may not be possible to address this problem immediately with new funds. However, it is possible to revise the allocation method in such a way that when funding is increased in the future no county would lose funds, but a larger share of the increase would be directed to counties with below-average funding if they commit to make realistic and measurable improvements in collections. Over time, the inequities of the current allocation system would be reduced, child support collections would be improved in the largest counties where the opportunity for improvement is the greatest, and the State would realize net long-term savings.

There is another potential problem facing the child support program. In its FY 2004-05 January Budget proposal, the Administration sought to shift to counties 25 percent of the Federal penalty levied on the State for its failure to have a single statewide automated child support system, as required by Federal law. This assessment would have cost the County $11 million. The Administration later dropped the proposal after it concluded that the penalty would be waived by the Federal government. However, they recently learned that the $203.8 million penalty will not be waived in the current year and could be levied again next year unless the State meets certain Federal requirements.

We would strongly oppose proposals to reassess counties for the State's continuing failure to meet Federal requirements in a timely fashion. If counties were required to share the burden of the State's penalty, it would almost certainly weaken child support programs and collections in counties like Los Angeles which would be forced to use county funds in the local agency budget to pay their penalty assessment.

State-County Program Realignment

In 1991, the State enacted a major realignment of services and funding between the State and counties utilizing funding from a half-cent increase in the sales tax and a dedicated portion of the Vehicle License Fee. Despite occasional problems, particularly in economic downturns when the sales tax revenue tends to lag behind the increase in demand for the health and social services it funds, the 1991 realignment is considered a success. Nevertheless, despite periodic calls for additional realignment of state-county programs, including a major proposal by Governor Davis in FY 2003-04, realignment has not been expanded.

It is very likely that the Administration will recommend a new realignment proposal in the 2005-06 Session. The California Performance Review's report to the Governor recommended a cost-neutral swap of four state and county programs totaling about $2 billion. In addition, the Administration established a task force including stake holders to consider these and other programs for possible inclusion in a proposal that would be part of the May Revision to the Budget. If done correctly, realignment could be to everyone's advantage including the State, counties, program recipients, and taxpayers. As in previous realignment efforts, the County is willing to discuss which programs are appropriate. For realignment to succeed, it must be mutually beneficial and must include adequate and ongoing revenue to cover program costs in the first year and for the foreseeable future.

Therefore, it is recommended that protection of funding for State-funded County-administered services and programs should be the County's main priority for the FY 2005-06 Legislative Session, in particular, continued funding for the County's health care system and juvenile probation. In addition, the County should oppose the transfer of the Federal penalty on the State for its failure to implement a statewide automated child support system, and be involved in discussions over program realignment in the event such a proposal emerges.

SPECIFIC POLICIES ON STATE ISSUES OF COUNTY INTEREST

Attachment I contains recommended State legislative policies addressing issues of major County interest, Attachment II contains County-sponsored program-specific legislative proposals, and Attachment III includes County priority water quality, recreation, and beach improvement projects.

IMPLEMENTATION OF STRATEGIC PLAN GOALS

The proposed policies and proposals in this State Legislative Agenda are consistent with the County's Strategic Plan Goals, specifically, Organizational Effectiveness and Fiscal Responsibility. Adoption of the proposed Agenda will allow the CAO and the County's Sacramento advocates to respond quickly to proposals that significantly affect the County, such as cuts in program funding or new mandates on county government. In addition, adoption will allow pursuit of legislation and support of specific proposals that improve the efficiency and effectiveness of County services.

CONCLUSION

The recommended policies contained in this letter and in Attachments I, II, and III are submitted for your Board's consideration as the guiding principles for our advocacy efforts in Sacramento during the 2005-06 Legislative Session. The policies and proposals contained in this package are in addition to, and are not intended to be exclusive of, other positions your Board may adopt. As in the past, the Legislative Agenda will be updated to reflect subsequent Board actions.

Respectfully submitted,

1. Support efforts to establish technology-specific area codes in order to reduce the proliferation of area codes for regular telephone customers.

COUNTY-SPONSORED PROGRAM-SPECIFIC PROPOSALS
(Board Actions and Department Requests)

1. Clarification of Documentary Transfer Tax Application

As a result of the deregulation of the electric industry, investor-owned utilities were required to sell off much of their generation capacity. Southern California Edison (Edison) sold off four generating plants in Los Angeles County to companies outside of California. Documentary Transfer Tax payments were required on these sales. Edison paid the documentary transfer tax on only that portion of the sale price that was equal to the "net book value" last shown by the State Board of Equalization which resulted in Edison paying tax on only 50 percent of the actual sales price. Recent litigation failed to effectively resolve this issue; however, legislative clarification would ensure that it does not happen again in other large sales. Therefore, the County will pursue legislation to clarify that documentary transfer taxes are applicable to the full sale price of real property.

2. Names-Based HIV Reporting

Since 2002, California has had a code-based HIV reporting system. This approach has been somewhat beneficial in identifying new cases of HIV, but has not been fully effective and may lead to a loss of future Federal Ryan White CARE Act due to Congressionally-adopted changes in funding formulas. On October 12, 2004 the Board approved the County's Commission on HIV Health Services' report urging the adoption of name-based HIV reporting to significantly improve the surveillance and understanding of HIV infection in the County, and avert potential Federal funding losses. Therefore, the County will sponsor or support legislation to implement names-based HIV reporting in California.

3. Secure SB 1732 Funding for the LAC+USC Medical Center Replacement Project

Current law imposes restrictions on the County's ability to access SB 1732 funding which allows for State reimbursement of a portion of the cost of hospital capital projects that meet State criteria and Federal Medicaid requirements for disproportionate share hospitals. On December 3, 2002, the Board of Supervisors directed that the County seek amendments to SB 1732 to maximize the availability of funding for the Medical Center Replacement Project, while preserving the option to expand its scope at the Board's discretion. Therefore, the County will seek amendments to SB 1732 to achieve these objectives.

4. Local Alcohol Tax Authority

Under current law, local government does not have the authority to levy an alcohol tax. The weakened condition of the California economy has increased the demand for local governmental services beyond what current revenues can finance. This places essential services such as emergency and trauma care, where the need for these services is often linked to alcohol consumption, at risk. Therefore, the County will seek legislation that would authorize counties to impose a local tax of no more than 5% on the sale of alcoholic beverages in order to continue to provide essential public services, including emergency and trauma care.

5. Expand Participation in the Child Care Retention Program

The County's Office of Child Care, under contract with the California Department of Education (CDE), administers the Investing in Early Educators program which provides stipends to increase the education and retention of workers in licensed child care centers under contract with CDE. Since 2001, over 3,000 stipends have been awarded totaling $7.8 million, and no applicant has been denied due to lack of funds. Under current law, the stipends are restricted to only workers in CDE-funded child care programs. However, research in the County has demonstrated that teachers working in CDE-funded child care centers are relatively better compensated and have better benefits than their colleagues working in centers operated under different auspices. Therefore, as a strategy to improve child care quality through improved worker education and retention, we will sponsor legislation to expand eligibility for participation in the County's Investing in Early Educators stipend program to include persons working in licensed family child care homes and child care centers that do not hold CDE contracts.

6. State Education Funding for Los Angeles County College of Nursing

The Los Angeles County College of Nursing and Allied Health, located at the LAC+USC Medical Center, is not part of a community college district and is ineligible for State funding under the Education Code. Therefore, it is recommended that the County seek legislation amending the Education Code to permit the Los Angeles County College of Nursing and Allied Health to receive State funding as do nursing programs in community colleges, or alternatively seek funding for the College in the State budget. DHS

7. State-County Property Tax Administration Program (PTAP)

The State-County Property Tax Administration Program will sunset after the 2006-07 fiscal year. Also, the amount received from the PTAP has not changed since its inception in 1995 despite higher operational costs incurred by the County. Therefore, in order to ensure that this critical program is continued and that funding is increased, the County will sponsor or support legislation to eliminate the sunset date for the PTAP; increase the grant amount received in recognition of higher operational costs, and index future PTAP funds by an inflationary factor.

2005-06 STATE LEGISLATIVE AGENDA

WATER QUALITY, RECREATION AND BEACH IMPROVEMENT PROJECTS

To meet anticipated State funding criteria, which would require or favor projects that are "multipurpose," the Departments of Beaches and Harbors, Parks and Recreation, Public Works, and the Chief Administrative Office collaborated in developing the following list of projects. The list demonstrates the County's recognition of the important linkage between watershed management, environmental restoration, recreation, open space, and beach improvements. The list integrates the projects to maximize the County's immediate opportunities for State funding from Propositions 40 and 50, and represents a portion of a larger group of projects that will have to be done over a period of years.

Geographically, the projects are spread from Santa Clarita and the San Gabriel foothills, along the County's major rivers and creeks, to Long Beach, Marina del Rey, and the County's beaches. While the projects have been grouped by Supervisorial District (with some of the projects having elements in more than one District), the list must be viewed in its totality. Combined, the projects create a multi-purpose plan for improving watersheds, habitats, beaches and parks, recreational opportunities, as well as public access and safety. Several of the projects have been taken from the Los Angeles River Master Plan. The remaining projects are consistent with watershed plans for the Arroyo Seco, Ballona Creek, Compton Creek, Malibu Creek, Rio Hondo, the San Gabriel River, Sun Valley, Topanga Creek, and the Tujunga Wash. These plans have been completed, or are being developed, by committees with representatives from all levels of government, environmental groups, other stakeholder groups, and interested citizens.

Pursuit of funding for the projects on this list will focus on the "Clean Beaches, Watershed Protection and Water Quality" section of Proposition 40, Proposition 40 funds earmarked for local conservancies and river parkway projects, and the "Clean Water and Water Quality," "Integrated Regional Water Management," and "Coastal Protection" sections of Proposition 50. This effort will be in addition to the County's pursuit of funding for local park, cultural and historic resource preservation, water supply and dam security, and beach facility improvement projects that will not qualify under these sections of Propositions 40 and 50, but may be eligible for grants under other programs.

The San Gabriel River Master Plan proposes 134 multi-use projects that focus on recreation, habitat, natural area, water quality, water conservation, and flood mitigation enhancement opportunities. This is an estimate for an initial set of projects ($500,000 each) for the design and construction of new gateways that incorporates native landscaping and will provide entry points where the San Gabriel River Bike Trail intersects with Whittier Boulevard, Carson Avenue, and Alondra Boulevard.

The WMA will identify and prioritize enhancements including recreational facilities, habitat enhancement, water conservation, and flood protection. The Corps of Engineers will develop the WMA with Orange County acting as the local lead partner.

The WMA will facilitate development and implementation of a more comprehensive program to improve open space and recreational opportunities for conservation, restoration, and environmental enhancement of the Coyote Creek and Carbon Creek Watersheds. The completed WMA will facilitate the ability of the Los Angeles County Flood Control District and other stakeholders to apply for Federal grants to fund projects that are identified and recommended within the plan.

- County Responsibility: Public Works
- Potential Partners: Orange County Flood Control District, Army Corps of Engineers, Conservancies, and local Cities.

FIFTH DISTRICT*24. Arroyo Seco Restoration*$ 35,000,000

(Also in the First District)

This is an estimate of the Fifth District portion of a $50 million pilot project involving concrete removal and habitat restoration. - County Responsibility: Parks and Recreation
- Potential Partners: City of Santa Clarita, Community Groups

26. Santa Clara River Watershed Feasibility Study*$ 8,200,000

The Santa Clara River drains the largest watershed in Southern California, traveling approximately 84 miles from the headwaters above Acton to the Pacific Ocean. The watershed covers an area of 1,600 square miles, divided almost equally between the Counties of Los Angeles and Ventura. Los Angeles County portion is estimated to be $1.7 million.

The goal of the study is to identify flood protection and sedimentation problems and opportunities within the watershed. This will be accomplished by developing hydrologic, hydraulic, and sediment transport models of the entire watershed. The results will be quality mapped and integrated into a GIS database for analysis. Opportunities to improve water quality and riparian habitats will also be investigated.

- County Responsibility: Public Works
- Potential Partners: Ventura County Watershed Protection District, Army Corps of Engineers.
